Section B: Certification

On your 2025-2026 FAFSA, you did not include parent information and you indicated that you are homeless or at risk of homelessness. The Financial Aid office can make a determination so you are considered an independent student for federal financial aid purposes.

Please answer the following questions and provide the requested documentation:

1. Are you lacking fixed, regular, and adequate housing? _____ No _____ Yes (If yes)
 - Provide a written statement detailing your living situation.
 - A statement from a professional that knows of your circumstances would also help in our determination of your independent status.
2. Are you self-supporting (Meaning you pay your own living expenses, including fixed, regular and adequate housing expenses)? _____ No _____ Yes (If yes)
 - Attach copies of proof of income such as a rent receipt, a utility receipt and a current pay stub with your name on it.
 - Also provide a written explanation of your circumstances that place you at risk of being homeless.
3. Are you living in the physical custody of a parent or guardian? _____ No _____ Yes (If no)
 - Attach a written explanation of why you do not live with them and provide a parent address. If you have other documentation of this situation, please attach.
4. Are you 21 years old or younger or still enrolled in high school as of the date you signed your FAFSA?
 _____ No _____ Yes (If yes)

Birth Date _____ High School (if still enrolled) _____
