Your 2025-2026 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called verification. The verification process is to confirm the information given on the original application submitted to the Department of Education. If there are any differences, your FAFSA may need to be corrected. You must complete and sign this worksheet, submit the form and other required documents to the financial aid office. We cannot process your financial aid until verification has been completed. DO NOT leave blank spaces, if you need to make a correction, put one line through the mistake, and initial and date next to it.

As a result, the parent should not include any unborn children in the family size.

SECTION D: INCOME INFORMATION (PARENT)

PLEASE COMPLETE EITHER THE TAX FILER OR NON TAX FILER SECTIONS. YOU CANNOT BE BOTH.

TAX FILER: Complete this section if your Parent filed or will file a 2023 IRS income tax return.

Important Note: The instructions below apply to each parent (or stepparent, if applicable) included in the household. Notify the financial aid office if the parents filed separate IRS income tax returns for 2023 or had a change in marital status after December 31, 2023.

Instructions: Complete this section if the parents filed or will file a 2023 IRS income tax return(s). As part of federal student aid eligibility, parents will be required to consent and approve sharing and importing income and tax information from the IRS to the FAFSA form, even if the attempt to obtain or use such data is ineffective. In other words, if the parents filed separate 2023 IRS income tax returns, both must provide consent and approval to share and import income and tax information from the IRS. In most cases, no further documentation is needed to verify 2023 income information that was transferred into the student's FAFSA using income and tax information directly from the IRS via the FA-DDX.

If 2023 income tax return information for the parents was not available or could not be used, the parents should provide the institution with a 2023 IRS Tax Return Transcript(s) or a signed copy of the 2023 income tax return and applicable schedules.
