LASSEN COMMUNITY COLLEGE CODE OF ETHICS
For
ASB OFFICERS

We, the Associated Student Body of Lassen Community College, do hereby declare and affirm our commitment to conduct ourselves in all of our dealings with individuals, both inside and outside of the college community, in a equitable and ethical manner. Moreover, we will, to the extent of our ability:

- Be honest, candid, truthful, trustworthy, and fair in all matters;
- Act as professionals in all our dealings;
- Measure issues on their merit and not allow personal feelings to bias our judgment;
- Treat individuals with respect, and not hold personal grudges, or act in anyway which reflects negatively on this body or the college;
- Provide students with opportunities and forums to express their opinions without fear of reprisal, harassment, intimidation, or other destructive behaviors;
- Abide by the principles and guidelines of the Associated Student Body Charter which comprises of the Constitution, Bylaws, and Election Code;
- As an officer of The Associated Student Body, I agree to uphold the institutional values of honesty and integrity, and adhere to the student honor code to promote a positive learning environment for all students. I acknowledge that this will provide me the best learning experience and build a strong foundation of skills for my future.
